Overview:

Jack represents clients in civil litigation matters ranging from defamation, procurement law, environment disputes, land disputes, employment, complex commercial and contract disputes, tax disputes, and succession causes.

He also specializes in criminal litigation and general corporate advisory. He is known for being a formidable litigator.

Jack is also involved in numerous other activities by dint of his membership in various organizations that have a specific keen interest in mentorships and leadership training, which are passionate areas for him.

Key Matters:

- Kenya Airways, (Kenya's national carrier) in a labor dispute challenging a 4-day strike action by the Kenyan pilots' union. The firm negotiated a deal allowing talks while the pilots resumed work, stopping the financial loss of USD 2.2 billion daily.
 - Kenya Electricity Generating Company, in various complex commercial and contractual disputes for the drilling of geothermal wells both in the country and out of the country.
 - An international firm, that represented Kenyan citizens (who were victims of human rights abuse in Kenya) in the UK Courts against companies incorporated in the UK.
